IN RE United State Commerce, Alvin Faulkner sid #0898792
petitioner, pursuant to Article I section 9 of United States Constitution; injunction with 28 U.S.C. 2241 sep., respectfully moves this Honorable Court not to suspend the great Writ of Liberation/ Habeas Corpus, but to exercise both Courts authority and Jurisdiction in the Court and review Constitutional authority of Federal Public Record, and grant this Writ, as reasons herefore say:

Authority For Granting Federal Habeas Corpus

It is well settled that in order for a prisoner to prevail on a Federal Habeas Corpus, the prisoner must first demonstrate that he was deprived of life, liberty or property by Governmental Action. Beverati vs. Smith (4th 1997) 120 F.3d 500 At. 502.

A Federal Court exercising Habeas Jurisdiction is limited to deciding whether a prisoner's custody is in violation of the Constitution or law of the United States, 28 U.S.C. § 2241:

Rose vs. Hedges (1975) 423 U.S. 79 At. 12

28 U.S.C. § 2241(c)(3)(2012), that writ of Habeas Corpus may issue when prisoner is in custody in violation of the Constitution or law ... of the United States.

The issue presented on Federal Habeas Corpus mandates petitioner unconditional Release, under the authority and Jurisdiction of Federal Public Records

Ground For Issuance of Habeas Corpus Relief

The Terms of contract # 1215 was as follow; In exchange for issuance of October 3, 2016 United State Pardon # 3011897210 ordering petitioner Alvin Faulkner sid # 0898792 unconditional Release from Division of Correction, index D.O.C # 186-774, Petitioner Alvin Faulkner sid # 0898792 would sign-over, copy Writs to Federally Patten 3 Point soft-ware computer program, Petitioner Honor his condition, his Pardon Constitutional Release from D.O.C by the respondents U.S. Marshal Service was interrupted, and impeded by State employee declaring in return of service of U.S. Pardon # 3011897210 State falsely that petitioner had been release from Brockbridge correctional instt, Petitioner is entitled to grant of this Writ based upon the authority Federally Constitutional Public Record, petitioner is still being denied his Constitutional Right to liberty.
